PROFILE

Junior Web Developer with some experience in creating and maintaining responsive websites.

Contributed to developing a School Portal for the School I attended for learning C#/.NET.

Bringing a strong commitment to delivering high-quality web solutions that drive user engagement.

Quit my job to pursue my old dream of working in IT, and got the opportunity to learn web development using C#/.NET.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Junior Web Developer

- Had my internship at the school I attended developing their Portal for handling Test taking and Assignment turn-ins making the process less time-consuming for the teacher.
- Also have some small home projects I have done in my GitHub, link is in my Portfolio website.

Other

- Have previously worked as a chef for about 8 years.
